High Street, Babraham CB22 3AG

A delightful Grade II listed thatched period cottage that is full of charm and character set within the quiet village of Babraham.

Babraham is a small historic village south of Cambridge. Known for its rural charm, it features traditional cottages, farmland, and the medieval St Peter's Church. Nearby, the Babraham Institute conducts internationally recognized biomedical research. Despite its quiet size, the village blends centuries-old heritage with cutting-edge science.

The accommodation includes a living room/diner with inglenook fireplace, kitchen/breakfast room, garden room, three bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside to the rear is a well stocked cottage garden with patio and side access.

This charming cottage must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Location

Babraham is a village in the South Cambridgeshire district of Cambridgeshire, approx. 6 miles (9.7 km) south-east of Cambridge on the A1307 road. Steeped in history, the village contains a primary school called Babraham Primary School, which opened in 1959. It also retains one public house, The George, which was already open as an inn in 1488 but rebuilt in around 1600.
