Location

Located in the northern part of Cambridge, the CB4 area offers a mix of traditional and modern housing, with good access to green spaces such as Chesterton Recreation Ground and Milton Country Park. Local amenities include supermarkets, independent shops, cafés and pubs along Milton Road and Chesterton Road, as well as several GP surgeries and community centres. The area benefits from its proximity to the Cambridge Science Park and Business Park, making it a popular choice for professionals working in technology and research sectors. Schools in CB4 are well regarded, with primary options such as Milton Road Primary School, Arbury Primary and King's Hedges Primary, and highly rated secondary schools like Chesterton Community College (Outstanding) and North Cambridge Academy (Good). Transport links are excellent - Cambridge North railway station provides quick connections to London Kings Cross and Liverpool Street, while the nearby A14 and M11 give easy road access across the region. The area is also well served by local buses, the Guided Busway and extensive cycle routes. Overall, CB4 offers a convenient, family-friendly environment with strong transport links and good amenities, combining suburban calm with easy access to Cambridge city centre.
